PROCEDURES OF THE FORMAL PHYSICAL EVALUATION BOARD

These procedures are set forth in the Disability Evaluation Manual, SECNAVINST 1850.4E.

The Presiding Officer will ask you to state your name, rank/rate, social security number, and your present duty station (if you are on active duty), or home address (if you are on TDRL). The Presiding Officer will ask if you or your counsel have any challenges for cause of members comprising the Formal Physical Evaluation Board (PEB). If there are any challenges, the proceedings will be adjourned until the challenge is resolved.

If you desire to give sworn testimony, the Presiding Officer will administer the oath to you and any witness.

Your counsel will proceed with a direct exam designed to elicit testimony from you regarding your conditions. After the attorney finishes, the Presiding Officer will ask if you are available for questioning by the members of the Formal PEB. When the Board members have finished with their questions, any witness will be questioned by your counsel and then will be questioned by the Board members should they so desire. If appropriate, the medical member of the Formal PEB may, with your consent, conduct a limited physical examination.

The Presiding Officer will afford both you and your counsel the opportunity to present anything further to the Formal PEB about your medical condition that has not been covered in previous testimony. You may make a final personal statement if you so desire. The Formal PEB will then be closed for deliberations.

Upon completion of deliberations, the Formal PEB will forward its findings to the President, PEB for final approval and your findings will be mailed to you on the results of the hearing.

RIGHTS OF THE MEMBER

Your rights before the Formal PEB are established by the Secretary of the Navy in the Disability Evaluation Manual (SECNAVINST 1850.4E).
You have the right to:

1. Personal presence. If personal presence would be injurious to your health, notify your counsel without delay.

2. Representation by qualified legal counsel. This counsel may be appointed military counsel, other military counsel of your choice (if considered reasonably available by his/her Command), or by civilian counsel of your choice, at your expense (no expense to the Government). Also, DAV representatives are available for hearings at the Formal PEB on Tuesdays and Thursdays only. If a DAV representative is considered, then please notify the Formal PEB so you can be scheduled accordingly. If you elect to be represented by counsel of your choice, the appointed military counsel may assist as associate counsel.

3. Access to all records pertinent to your case and to all reference material used by the Formal PEB.

4. Challenge Formal PEB members for cause. You may challenge any voting member of the Formal PEB for cause by disclosing the grounds for such challenge (e.g., establishing that a Board member may not impartially evaluate your case).

5. Presentation of evidence in your own behalf. Your testimony may be oral or written, sworn or unsworn, and may be given by you or your Counsel. You may remain silent. If you testify under oath, the Formal PEB may question you.

6. Secure witnesses, records, dispositions, affidavits, and statements on relevant issues, insofar as practicable.

7. Cross-examination of witnesses when presented by the panel.

8. Presentation of arguments in your behalf.

9. Have the issues decided only on evidence presented to the Formal PEB.

10. File a Petition for Relief from final action of the PEB decision. At your request, your appointed military counsel will help in the preparation of this grievance.
IMPORTANT INFORMATION
FROM THE
NAVAL LEGAL SERVICE OFFICE, NORTH CENTRAL

Subj: PREPARING FOR YOUR FORMAL BOARD HEARING

1. You have requested a hearing before the Formal Physical Evaluation Board (the "Board"). This letter is intended to advise you of important information about the process and to assist you in preparing for your case.

2. Check the Hearing Date. The important first step is to check your hearing date. Rescheduling is subject to Board approval and will be granted only in limited circumstances. As soon as you receive your hearing date, check that date against your calendar and make sure that it does not conflict with any critical work/school commitments or medical appointments which pertain specifically to conditions to be considered at your hearing. If you have a conflict, please notify your attorney immediately so that s/he can file a reschedule request with the Board.

3. Your Right to Counsel. For the Formal Board process, you are entitled to representation by an attorney. You have been assigned an attorney from the Naval Legal Service Office, North Central, located at the Navy Yard in Washington DC. Additionally, you may hire a civilian attorney at your own expense. Your assigned counsel is responsible for assisting you in preparing and presenting your case. This attorney is your advocate, but this is your hearing. Your PEB attorney will advise you on the process and on what he or she believes will be most persuasive and convincing to the Board, but it is your responsibility to secure, prior to your arrival at the Board, all documents and other materials pertaining to your desired petition.

4. The Formal Board Process, In General. The Formal Board is an administrative process that is charged with making findings concerning the fitness and eligibility for disability benefits of those service members appearing before the Board. In carrying out this function, the Formal Board provides the member with his statutory right not to be separated for unfitness without first being offered the right to a hearing. The Formal Board process is considered "non-adversarial," which means there are not two "parties" that appear before the Board. Instead, only you and your counsel appear. The Board will review your records, including any additional information you wish to present, and will render an opinion based on the matters presented to them. The Formal Board is not bound by the Informal Board's findings; in fact, the findings of the Informal Board are void once the Formal PEB convenes. The Formal Board will, however, consider the evidence that was presented to the Informal Board along with any additional relevant and pertinent documentation which you provide to them in the form of medical records, doctor's letters, medical board addendums, oral testimony, and the like. The Formal Board will not independently collect any records or documents beyond that which was considered by the Informal Board. Instead, the Formal Board will expect you, the service member, to provide all the documentation of medical treatment, prescribed therapy, medications and any other relevant documentation to support a rationale for your petition. Your attorney will help you determine what information to compile in order to present a persuasive petition and assist you in organizing your exhibits and testimony, but you must gather the records and forward them to your counsel as soon as possible.

5. Begin Preparing Now. Time is of the essence. Please contact your assigned attorney at the Naval Legal Service Office, North Central as soon as possible, so that you and your attorney can begin preparing your case. During the initial conversation, please be prepared to discuss the following:

a. Your goals for the hearing (e.g., a specific disability & rating, retention on the Temporary Disability Retirement List, transfer to the Permanent Disability Retirement List, etc.)

b. Your current status (e.g., whether you are still under treatment for ratable conditions, time left on the TDRL, etc.)

c. Your Veteran's Administration disability rating (if applicable)

d. Any medical documentation you have to support your petition to the Formal Board (including civilian, military, and emergency room records from the date you first entered the TDRL or since your last TDRL evaluation and ALL Veteran's Administration medical records including your % disability ratings notice and rationale sheet). THIS INFORMATION IS VERY IMPORTANT AND YOU MUST OBTAIN, OR BEGIN WORKING TO OBTAIN, THIS INFORMATION IMMEDIATELY. DO NOT WAIT UNTIL YOU HAVE SPOKEN WITH YOUR ATTORNEY.

e. Your current address and phone number(s).

6. Other Possible Documents. In addition to the medical documentation listed above, you may also want to start seeking out "observational letters" from supervisors, co-workers, friends and/or family who see you on a frequent or regular basis and who can describe the ways in which they see your injuries or illnesses affecting your ability to fully participate in the civilian job market. These letters should be dated and signed, but there is no need to have them notarized. In some cases, it may also be helpful to begin keeping a personal daily log of your condition including entries on symptoms suffered, medications taken, and treatment sought. Please forward these non-medical documents along with the pertinent copies of your medical documents as soon as possible.

7. Contacting Your Attorney. Office hours are Monday to Friday, 0800 to 1630. You may contact your attorney as follows:

a. By Phone: You can reach the Administrative Office at (202) 685-5580. You can reach LT Whittemore at (202) 685-5597. Because of hearing schedules and pre-hearing meetings, staff attorneys can be difficult to reach. It is imperative that you leave a message on the voicemail of your assigned counsel with your daytime and home phone numbers, and your hearing date. Your assigned counsel will make every effort to return your call promptly. Please be patient and again, do not wait until you have spoken to your attorney to start gathering the documents necessary to support your case. Bring copies of all your documentation, including anything you faxed or sent in advance in case those copies were illegible, AND your medical treatment record and service record, to your meeting with your attorney.

b. By Fax: Often the most efficient way to forward information to your attorney is via fax at the Naval Legal Service Office, North Central at (202) 685-5596/5542.

c. By Mail: Mail more voluminous documents to:

NAVAL LEGAL SERVICE OFFICE, NORTH CENTRAL
PEB COUNSEL (ATTN: LT ____________)

Enclosure 2
Note: You can also request that your military, civilian, or Veteran's Administration medical facility fax your records directly to us. (Attention: PEB Counsel). Often you will be required to sign a release of medical information form in order to do this.

8. The day before your hearing you will meet with your attorney at the Naval Legal Service Office, North Central which is located in Building 200, Ste. 250 on board the Washington Navy Yard, DC. Bear in mind that the Naval Legal Service Office does not have cognizance over administrative, berthing and/or travel matters. Please direct all such inquiries and concerns to the Secretary of the Navy Council of Review Boards administrative staff located in Building 36, Room 309,(202)685-6432.

9. Please do not hesitate to contact your counsel if you have any questions concerning your case.

Transportation to the Washington Navy Yard:

There are various means of public transportation in the Washington Metro area. If you are using commercial air transportation, you should arrange travel into Washington Reagan National Airport (DCA) in Washington, DC. You can visit the following web site for more information on transportation: www.washingtondc.worldweb.com/Transportation

From Washington Reagan National Airport (DCA): The METRO Rail subway is the easiest and least expensive mode of ground transportation to the Washington Navy Yard. The ticket fare is roughly $2.30 and you should have cash and coins available although credit and debit cards may be used in some stations. Once you arrive at DCA, take the Yellow Line from the airport METRO station. Take the Yellow Line train going toward Mt. Vernon Square. Once it leaves the airport METRO station it will stop at three stations and then proceed to the L’ Enfant Plaza Station. You will need to get off the train at L’ Enfant Plaza Station and transfer to a Green Line train traveling towards the Branch Ave. Station. Direction signs are clearly visible in the station. Take the Green Line train two stops and exit at the Washington Navy Yard station. Once you come out of the subway you will be on M Street SE. Once oriented, you will need to walk about three (3) blocks up M Street and enter the Navy Yard at the Main Gate on the corner of M Street and 6th St. If you are unable to walk that distance you may take the Metro Bus or you may chose to hail a taxi at your personal expense. The METRO Bus stops at the WNY Metro stop and proceeds directly to the WNY Main Gate. Refer to the WNY map for directions to Building 183 (Navy Legal Services Office).

POV: If you are in the local area and decide to drive (see orders for local area), you MUST ensure that your vehicle’s DoD stickers are current and valid. Failure to do so will result in untimely delays when attempting entry to the WNY Base and Bolling AFB. Vehicle parking at the WNY is extremely limited and parking immediately outside the base is even more difficult to locate. For those reasons, it is recommended that you do NOT drive your POV on the hearing days. If you access the base via POV, you must park in the Visitors Section of the parking garage. Depending on which gate you enter, ask the Security Guard for directions to the authorized parking garage. Once at the garage, notify the attendant that you are here for a formal hearing at the Secretary of the Navy Council of Review Boards, Physical Evaluation Board in Bldg 36. The attendant will direct you to park on the top level. If there is no attendant present proceed to the top level.
RETAIN THESE INSTRUCTIONS WITH ORDERS

Reporting: You are not required to report in uniform on your day of arrival. However, you are required to get your orders endorsed by the Formal PEB Admin Section; this will be done on the day of your hearing. If you travel to Washington and subsequently decide to accept your Informal PEB findings, you must see the FPEB Admin Assistant before departing the area to have your orders endorsed.

YOU MUST HAVE A VALID MILITARY ID PRIOR TO ATTEMPTING ENTRY ON TO A MILITARY BASE. If your ID is expired, you must contact your nearest military installation to obtain a new military ID. Failure to do so may result in your inability to access the base. BE SURE TO CARRY A COPY OF YOUR ORDERS AT ALL TIMES.

On the day prior to your hearing, you are required to check in with the Navy Legal Services Office (NLSO), located in Bldg 183, 624 Warrington St SE, Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5016 (202) 685-5580 (refer to the WNY map for directions), to meet with your assigned attorney. You will need to report to the NLSO between the hours of 0800 and 1300. If you can arrive earlier, please do so. If you have difficulty in finding the location, please call (202) 685-6432. (Do not report to NLSO before the day prior to your hearing!)

Your formal hearing will be convened in Bldg 36 on the scheduled day. Your legal counsel will provide you details on the scheduled hearing time.

After your meeting with your counsel at WNY, you may proceed to Bolling AFB (Inns of Bolling) by using the government shuttle van service (15 passenger van with a RT 12 sign in the windshield). The shuttle bus runs every hour to and from the WNY (Bldg 197 pick up point) to the main billeting building (Blanchard Hall) on Bolling AFB. See enclosed maps for locations of pick up and drop off.

Hearing Day: The RT 12 shuttle van’s scheduled first pick up at Blanchard Hall is at 0620. The van leaves at 0620 sharp! Members should proceed to the Air Force side of Blanchard Hall to catch the shuttle. (As you look at the building, the AF side is to your LEFT!) The RT 12 shuttle van will proceed to the WNY and drop off passengers at Bldg 197. The van runs on an hourly basis. The last pick up at the WNY will be at 1641 hours and will drop off at Blanchard Hall. If you miss the last pick up time, you will need to take a taxi back to Bolling AFB at your own expense. It is highly recommended that you make all your appointments and reservations as early as possible. You are encouraged to check out of berthing prior to coming over to the WNY, because your hearing will extend past check out time. You should plan on proceeding directly to the airport after your hearing. ***

Taxi services: If you want a taxi to pick you up on base, you must call one of the numbers below and schedule a pick up. You may also walk to the gate, exit the base, and hail a taxi.
