ATHLETE BIO BOOK

About the Trials

The Marine Corps Trials is an 11-sport military adaptive sports invitational involving more than 200 wounded, ill, or injured Marines, Sailors, veterans, and international competitors from the following countries: Colombia, Estonia, France, Georgia, Italy, Netherlands, and United Kingdom. Participation in the Marine Corps Trials is open to active duty, reserve, and veteran wounded, ill, or injured Marines and Sailors of all skill levels. The

The 13th annual Marine Corps Trials, hosted by the Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment, will take place aboard Camp Pendleton, CA, February 28 to March 12, 2023.

Marine Corps Trials is an evaluation of performance in both individual and team sports, with the top athletes afforded an opportunity to represent the Marine Corps at the Department of Defense Warrior Games, in June 2023. International competitors round out the playing field, bringing a high level of competition to the event. Organized into three competing teams, participants represent Wounded Warrior Battalion-East, Wounded Warrior Battalion-West, and an international team.

About the Regiment

Established in 2007, the Marine Corps Wounded Warrior Regiment is the official command charged by the Commandant of the Marine Corps to provide leadership and facilitate the integration of non-medical and medical care to combat and non-combat wounded, ill, and injured Marines, Sailors attached to Marine units, and their family members in order to maximize their recovery as they return to duty or transition to civilian life. The regimental headquarters, located in Quantico, VA, oversees the operations of two wounded warrior battalions located at Camp Pendleton, CA, and Camp Lejeune, NC, as well as multiple detachments in locations around the globe.
