

Traumatic Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance

Traumatic Service members' Group Life Insurance (TSGLI) is an addition to the Servicemembers' Group Life Insurance (SGLI) program that provides traumatically injured service members funds to meet immediate, post-injury financial needs. TSGLI provides a tax-free lump-sum payment as low as $25,000 - up to a maximum of $100,000.

Free Financial Counseling / Planning

Financial counseling/planning services are available to TSGLI beneficiaries at no cost. Once a claim is approved, services must be requested within two years from date of TSGLI payment. The service is available for up to two years once initiated. Members can use any or all of the services offered. The Wounded Warrior Regiment encourages Marines and families to take advantage of this free professional financial counseling service.

TSGLI protection benefit is payable for all qualifying injuries incurred during the period October 7, 2001 to November 30, 2005, regardless of the geographic location where they occurred, and regardless of whether the member had SGLI coverage at the time of the injury. The Veterans' Benefit Improvement Act of 2010 removes the requirement that injuries during this period be incurred in Operations Enduring or Iraqi Freedom.

TSGLI applies to service members who have a qualifying condition and:

- Are covered by SGLI in any amount
- Experience a traumatic event that directly results in a qualified scheduled loss
- Suffer the scheduled loss within 730 days or two years from the date of the traumatic event
- Survive seven days from a traumatic event
